National Day of Mourning – Impact on Court deadlines

Monday, September 19, 2022, has been declared a federal statutory holiday to honour the memory of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. As such, the Tax Court of Canada and its Registry offices will be closed for the day.

The date will further be a holiday under the Tax Court of Canada Act and all related Rules. As such, any provisions where holidays impact Court timelines will be engaged. For example, where an applicable deadline falls on September 19, 2022, the deadline will now be September 20, 2022.

Dated this 14th day of September, 2022.
