

Notice to the Public and the Profession

Update on impacts of general strike by the Public Service Alliance of Canada

This notice is being issued to inform parties, agents, counsel and the public of the developments further to the Notice to the Public and the Profession dated April 19, 2023.

The Government of Canada and the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC) have reached a tentative agreement on May 1, 2023, thus ending the strike affecting the employees of the Courts Administration Service who provide administrative services to the Tax Court of Canada.

All matters that were adjourned due to the strike will be rescheduled on a priority basis. The Registry will contact the affected parties to make the arrangements.

Registry counters across the country are open and Tax Court of Canada operations are back to normal.

Dated this 9th day of May, 2023.
